

Real.

Opportunities.

for networking, education, and growth

Connect. Engage. Impact.

tei.org/membership

Real. Opportunities.

for networking

Through various chapter-, regional-, and Institute-level events, members have access to an abundance of networking opportunities. From learning about personal experiences and discussing relevant topics, to workshopping problem-solving methods and gaining career insight, networking is the keystone of membership benefits.

for education

For all members, education is vital. Through several specialized courses and seminars, TEI members get access to up-to-date lessons on developments in tax policy, tax technology, best practices, and more to help manage their company's tax functions for success.

for growth

Opportunities foster growth. Through all that TEI offers, members are guaranteed to make strides not only in improving their in-house tax departments, but also in becoming the most successful professionals they can be.

“

The education that TEI provides is a one-stop shop to get your education and professional certification needs. It's a great, great tool and keeps people going throughout their career.”

— Wayne Monfries
TEI Member
Chicago Chapter

Real. Opportunities.

Why TEI?

TEI offers everything you need to flourish as an in-house tax professional. Whether you're looking for job opportunities, professional skills development, or a network of seasoned experts to look to for guidance, TEI provides the most comprehensive platform for advancement and engagement in the in-house tax world.

Membership Benefits

Membership in TEI gets you answers—to questions about your career, tax functions and processes, regulations and legislation, and more. Talk with members, attend meetings, read Tax Executive magazine, and listen to webinars to truly engage on a local, national, and global level. All the resources you'll ever need are right here at one organization working specifically on behalf of your profession.

TEI members understand the importance of being part of something that offers hundreds of networking opportunities yearly, real career advice, and a vision for the future of the in-house tax professional, all while advocating for your needs right in the heart of Washington, D.C.

Full Membership

Now with expanded opportunities for associates and students, TEI is opening its doors to advance the in-house tax profession well into the future. For all membership levels, benefits include:

- More than 600 yearly programs at the chapter, regional, and Institute level
- Ongoing analyses of the regulatory and legislative landscape
- Access to best practices and process improvement methodologies
- Networking opportunities for career, job growth and for innovative knowledge sharing
- Access to Tax Executive magazine
- Access to TEI Connect, a forum for discussing the most pertinent issues to in-house tax
- Discounts to tax and accounting products from Thomson Reuters and Carswell
- Exclusive member rates for TEI conferences, seminars, and valuable content

To learn more about TEI, and how it can benefit you, visit:

tei.org/membership

“These relationships have enabled me and others to have mentors and sounding boards in our local communities as well as connections throughout the country.”

— Teri Hull
TEI Board Member
Western Michigan Chapter

TEI

EXPANDED Membership Options

Associate Membership

NEW!

Associate members of TEI are those who currently have a career in taxation, but do not yet meet the requirement of five years' professional experience to achieve full membership. These members receive nearly all full-member offerings and are automatically converted to full membership once the years-of-experience requirement is met.

Student Membership

NEW!

Students interested in a career in in-house tax are offered a unique experience, receiving opportunities that could lead to skills development and landing that first job. Students must simply be enrolled in a full-time undergraduate or graduate program that provides an appropriate foundation for a career in tax, such as accounting, law, or taxation.

And for the cost—$25—there's no reason for a student not to join TEI. Membership can further drive engagement between students and professionals, offering a real-world view into the in-house tax profession. Students can:

- Build their resumés
- Access job postings
- Gain an advantage toward landing their first job
- Gather insight into a career trajectory
- Learn about real-world issues through multiple member-only channels
- Build relationships by networking with TEI's diverse membership
- Receive the confidence of knowing TEI is there for them while they grow personally and professionally

Connect. Engage. Impact.

TEI's Vision

TEI envisions a future that fosters growth of the ever-evolving industry through technology, innovation, better practices, diversity and inclusion, education, advocacy, and opportunities for the people it represents. The ultimate goal: to connect, to engage, to impact the in-house tax profession and its constituents for the continuous improvement of the global tax landscape.

Visit teio.org/membership to discover expanded membership possibilities.

“

“I have made lifetime friends that I now call my personal board of directors that help me with everything from career planning, work-life balance, tax technical questions, to offering support and encouragement for personal life challenges as well.”

—Emily Whittenburg
TEI Member
Houston Chapter

